QUOTES

- I am humbled by NASA's world class people and facilities ... proud to be part of a profound organization.
- RADM Chatfield: There is no path, but there ARE steppingstones.
- You can learn a lot about yourself by hearing the feedback you provide to others.
- Cynics slow you down; stop wasting energy on detractors.
- Communicate in a way that enrolls others to find common values.
- The Life Cycle blossomed into a profound tool.
- RADM Chatfield's modeling and vulnerability helped me engage deeper and more impactfully.
- It's important to connect work with the WHY and higher-level goals.
- Keep saying "so that" to drive to ultimate outcomes.
- Becoming a profound leader is a lifelong journey with willingness to do the hard work!
